The Morristown Gazette.

In the U. S. District Court at St. Louis, Nov. 13, the ex-revenue agent, Col. Joyce, was sentenced to three and a half years' imprisonment politically, according to the results and to pay a fine of $2,000. The of their latest elections, together Court in pronouncing sentence said with the number of Electoral votes That he had no doubt of the defend- to which each is entitled : ant's guilt, and that the conviction was just and deserved.

The Gaineville [Ga,] Eugle announces that Mr. Wm. Richards has made a deed of gift of the Richmond House and lot to the Methodist Orphan Home of the North Georgia Conference, located near Decatur, Ga. This magnificent property is worth perhaps $10,000, consequently the gift is a munificent one, and the more creditable to the

The Atlanta Constitution reports from reliable information that the houses of Lowry & Eason and D. E. Allen, of Dalton, Ga., have failed and gone into bankruptcy. The first kept a general supply house, and the last a dry goods store. It is reported that the liabilities of the first will probably reach $40,000, while their assets will more than cover it. Of the extent of either, however, not much is definitely known.

Information having reached Columbia, S. C., recently, that a report prevailed in New York that the new consolidated bonds of South Carolina, which were issued in exchange for coupons alleged to have been fraudulently outstanding, would be repudiated by the State, the Governor and Comptroller General and the State Treasurer authorized a contradiction of the report, and in it express the belief that no such purpose is anywhere entertained or can be legally accomplished, even if so
